DAYTON, Ohio, February 23, 1972 --- A dinner dance will be sponsored on Saturday, March 11, 1972 so University of Dayton students can aid the less fortunate youngsters of Dayton and the Appalachian country.

The Marianist Affiliates of Dayton will sponsor a dinner-dance on March 11th, in the University's Kennedy Union Ballroom at 7:00 P.M. (social hour starts at 6:00 P.M.). The proceeds of the affair will be given to the U.D. Appalachia program and the student program at St. Joseph Orphanage. Fr. Cy Middendorf is coordinator of both student groups. Members of the Appalachia Club spend several periods during the year in Appalachia country accomplishing hundreds of jobs, big and small, to improve the lot of those disadvantaged people. Other students tutor youngsters at St. Joseph Orphanage, take them to cultural programs and generally act as "Big Brother" to the youngsters.

The dinner will feature German-style dishes. Dancing will be to music by Harry Stout's orchestra. Entertainment between dinner and dancing will be presented by the Liederkrän-Turner Mens' Chorus, a well known singing group. There will be a sing-along to help make the evening merry.

For tickets call 256-6874 or 254-3198. Donation $5.50 per person. Tickets should be purchased by Wednesday, March 8th.
